

Directions to Hi8us Midlands

Travelling by car

From the South: Follow the A45 all the way into Birmingham. At the end of the A45 take the roundabout exit for A4540 Watery Lane Middleway. Take the first left onto Adderley Street, then the second right into Liverpool Street. Go straight over the crossroads, onto Fazeley Street. Take the first left onto Floodgate Street and The Arch is on the left.

From the North: At Junction 6 of the M6 take the exit for the A38. At the next roundabout, take the exit for A4540 Dartmouth Middleway. Continue straight over the first roundabout and at the next roundabout turn right into Great Barr Street. Turn right into Fazeley Street then take the first left into Floodgate Street, where The Arch is on the left.

On street parking is available on Floodgate Street and there are also parking facilities in The Bond and in the Custard Factory car park on Heath Mill Lane. This car park has a distinctive entrance made up of crushed car parts and is strictly pay and display – anyone without a valid ticket will be clamped.

Travelling by train

Getting from New Street Station to Hi8us:

On foot: Take the walk-way through the Bull Ring (next to Waterstones) which leads down to the Indoor Markets. Follow the road around to the left and then to the right, by the Admiral George pub. Keep on the left hand side of the road (Digbeth High Street) with the city centre directly behind you and carry on straight. Turn left after South Birmingham College down Floodgate Street and The Arch is towards the end of the street on the right hand side.

By taxi: Black cabs are available from the station: the journey will take approximately 5 to 10 minutes and cost around £4.
